Maysville made a whirlwind finish yes terday and refeated the Nailers in the second and last game of their series here. Sanford went in to bat for Daugherty and fanned. Chapman lined one to the right field fence for a triple and scored on Dietrich's single. Emery was safe on Kendall's error and both players advanced a base when he booted the ball some more. Donovan knocked as easy pop-up. Curtis put a single through second, scoring both runners.

Dillinger of the visitors was hit hard but he kept his hits well scattered until the ninth inning.

Raemes was hit hard in the 31/2 inngs that he pitched, but Daugherty
